Established in 1994, The South West Wedding Guild offers a comprehensive range of approved specialists for the wedding industry.

The Guild is a non profit making organisation that prides itself only having quality, well established businesses as part of their organisation. The Guild has identified the best local service providers within the industry and bought them together under one organisation for your convenience and assurance that you will only receive the best possible value and service.

All our service providers have the experience to provide bespoke products and service packages, whilst meeting your specific needs and budget.

Over the past fifteen years The Guild and it's service providers have helped thousands of people make their day the most memorable and special day of their lives, now let us do the same for you.
